

NEWS

FROM THE

Los Angeles County Commission on Human Relations

Office of Media Relations ☎(213) 974-7654

---

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

May 29, 2009

For further information, contact: Ava Gutierrez
(213) 974-7654 Telephone / (818) 317-5516 Cell

Media Advisory

What: The Los Angeles County Commission on Human Relations and the City of Duarte are hosting a “Call for Peace” press conference in response to recent incidents of gang violence in the area. Parents of recent victims will join city and county officials in calling for peace in the City of Duarte and the surrounding area.

Where: Atrium of Duarte City Hall, 1600 Huntington Drive, Duarte CA

When: Monday, June 1st at 10:30 a.m.

Who: Confirmed Guest speakers at this event include:

- Robin S. Toma, Executive Director, County Human Relations Commission;
- Jeanette Chavez, mother of Samantha Salas, gang shooting victim;
- Shannise Davey, mother of four whose home was burglarized, ransacked and vandalized.
- Brian Villalobos: Director of Public Safety Services, City of Duarte

Others invited to participate include government, school and city officials from the cities of Monrovia and Duarte, local clergy, and community council representatives from the unincorporated areas of Monrovia, Duarte and Arcadia (MAD).